Excellent Breed type throughout. Promising puppy, outstanding young male with magnificent headpiece, good bone and gait – won the Challenge. Quality bitches. Best of Breed also had lovely head, was well balanced. Her movement, unfortunately not commonly seen, was impeccable. She covered the ground with a dignified spring gait. All winners had that true Afghan expression – looking right through you.

 Airedale Terrier

Have come to the King of the terriers! WOW. What a nice entry with keen expression, outgoing and confident – alert to all the happenings. The dogs were actually beautiful to watch as they dominated the ring. The Best of Breed dog is all Airedale and showed he was KING today. The reserve Best of Breed bitch had the same quality in type and attitude. What fun to watch the two males apur and be true Airedales.

Not many entered but of two distinct types. Some dogs were smaller in head than what I like and a bit long in body. All coats were in top condition.

Mrs Carla Molinari
Alaskan Malamute

Many dogs entered but of very mixed types. Overall, I would fault dogs on eye colour (too light). Movement was sound in all, whilst coats, in some cases, too woolly. Best of Breed was a masculine dog, full of substance and with correct body length.

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Mrs Anne Katona
American Staffordshire Terrier

This was an interesting entry of American Staffs. The height of the dogs was a huge surprise. The American lumberjack's ruler must have been used to measure 19 inches!

Bitches overall quality and TYPE was FAR better, however, type needs to be definated by the local breeders – it was all over "the board" in both sexes.

The young Best of Breed bitch and the reserve bitch were the best in TYPE, SIZE, MOVEMENT and BREED CHARACTER within the entry. Check out side gain on both, look at size, memorize the heads and expression – these two are Am Staffs!! Just this American's opinion.

Mrs Jacqueline Quiros-Kubat
Australian Cattle Dog

The types varied some – a shade long. However most were very typical with excellent, alert expressions. A few were shy, mainly in the younger classes. Had they been shown outdoors, it could have made a difference.

Most dogs were well balanced, had good, sound bones and bodies of a sturdy working dog.

Best of Breed was a young dog of excellent type that really covered the ground effortlessly. Challenge bitch, though small, was compact with an excellent top line and also moved with great power and ease.

Quality in every class. The exhibits were uniform in type and size, had good heads with intelligent expression – deep briskets, good, strong oral boens, well muscled. All had that typical low reaching powerful and tireless gait.

Mrs Anne Katona
Australian Silky Terrier

Nice example of the Australian Silky Terrier were exhibited. The dog and bitch winners were both excellent bred TYPE with good overall balance, moderately low set to the ground and good freedom of movement. In my opinion, the young bitch Challenge winner has a great show career ahead of here once the coat length arrives. The Challenge dog had it all together today to win Best of Breed.

The entry was not large in number but OUTSTANDING in quality. Sturdy, low-set, rather long in proportion to height, alert and sound in movement. Basenji

There were different types and sizes but there were some very lovely heads with very expressive eyes and small pointed ears. Some were a little straight in front and steeple chested, but plenty of others had the proper fronts and good bone. Most had the typical Basenji movement covering much ground with elegant, effortless movement. The winners were the epitome of soundness combined with elegance.

Large, good bone, deep keels – some with better top lines than others but the quality was there. The heads were very good, strong without being coarse, lots of loose skin. The movement in most was excellent.

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Mrs Jacqueline Quiros-Kubat
Bearded Collie

Very uniform – excellent breed type, most with good front assembly. Good top lines. Some rears could have been stronger. The coats were in top, harsh condition with close undercoats. The winners were well balanced and moved in their typical long reaching gait.

Mrs Anne Katona
Bedlington Terrier

An entry of eight and very good quality. Lovely coats, with good texture and all were extremely well groomed. When hand stacking, please remember the wording, "slightly greater in length than height." Most exhibits were definitely within the 16 inches height range. My Best of Breed was the most correct mover, light and springy in slow stride and a slight roll in full stride. It was a joy to have this breed in the ring today

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Ms Carla Molinari
Bernese Mountain Dog

What a pleasure to judge this breed!!
So many good dogs were in my ring that I had a lot to choose from. This is always very pleasant for a judge. Overall, the quality was a pleasant surprise and so were the excellent temperaments.
Best of Breed - a most appealing dog from the Open Class. It was my pleasure to award him 2nd in Group later on.

Mrs Anne Katona
Bichon Frise

Nice entry of Bichons. The entry was quite good quality even though it was not large. Good examples of the breed standard from which to choose. Grooming was better than most and all exhibits were clean and WHITE! The Best of Breed bitch was a lovely little girl with eyes alert and full of expression. Dark eyes and eye rims with sound movement, making her a good walker.

Ms Carla Molinari
Black Russian Terrier

A breed with small numbers is always difficult to assess. Breed type was fair in most of the exhibits, coat trimming was wrong in at least one of them. Dogs were a bit smaller than desirable and also longer in body than what I like. Best of Breed was the bitch, feminine and in top condition. Best Puppy and Dog challenge was a very promising male of size and substance

Mrs Anne Katona
Border Terrier

There were some very good exhibits in this breed. A few were a bit on the "bigger is better" (we call that Texas size in the States) side; it would have taken much larger hands than mine to span them. However, overall balance and type was quite good. Excellent movement seen with most and very good coats.

There were different types – some a little too short coupled that didn't move out, however, the winners had lovely breed type, excellent heads, good front angulation with full end conveyed as elegant yet powerful. Sighthound very aristocratic

I've got a nice entry with quality. Only 1 exhibit was too bulky – most of them conveyed the real breed type. I could feel clearly the performance of the breeders, concentrating on head pieces. Don't forget – a dog should have a conformation which allows him / her to move! It was interesting to see the brindle ones dominating the population. Almost all the exhibits had nice head and lovely expression.

Ms Carla Molinari
Boxer

This was a difficult breed to assess as there were many dogs of good, sound instruction in the ring. It was a matter of decision on correct heads allied to correct bodies. Some eye colours were too light, some muzzles too flat and snippy but overall the quality was of a good level.

Best of Breed, was a very nice headed dog, beautiful pigmentation, alert and in top condition.

Best bitch was very sound and feminine, a lovely specimen of the breed.
