MARK O'SULLIVAN RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is pleased to present the 2017 Australian Food Awards (AFA).

In its second year, the AFA continues to make its mark as Australia's leading national food awards program, with close to 1400 entries from more than 430 exhibitors.

With draws for both the Champion Australian Organic Product trophy and the Best Grains and Legumes medal, it is apparent the calibre of entries this year was outstanding.

RASV is committed to creating opportunities of value for producers with the AFA providing entrants with credible benchmarking of products, invaluable feedback from the judging panel and market differentiation with the national seal of distinction that a medal represents.

To all the exhibitors, we thank you for your consistent dedication to quality and excellence and for continuing to produce premium food of the highest standard, as we have seen in this year's awards.

The 2017 AFA judging panel boasted a line-up of Australia's most-respected industry experts and we appreciate and value the dedication, enthusiasm and professionalism in assessing the entries to such a high standard.

The awards would not be possible without the support of the valued sponsors – Majors Group and the Victorian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, or the many stewards and volunteers and we sincerely appreciate their time and generosity in the delivery of the AFA.

RASV will continue to assess and evolve the categories in the AFA to reflect industry trends, production techniques and consumer interest.

We look forward to another exceptional year of Australian food production in 2018., together with the ongoing development of the AFA program.

Mark O'Sullivan
Chief Executive Officer
The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria
