MARK O'SULLIVAN
RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is pleased to present the inaugural Australian Food Awards (AFA).

The launch of the Australian Food Awards builds on the success of RASV's Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards (RMFFA) and marks a new chapter for Australian premium food producers, offering broader opportunities to leverage their success locally and internationally with the AFA seal of quality.

RASV is committed to creating opportunities of value for producers with the AFA providing entrants with credible benchmarking of products, invaluable feedback from the judging panel and market differentiation with the national seal of distinction that a medal represents.

In consultation with leading Australian food industry experts, RASV consolidated the 16 RMFFA categories to eight overarching categories, incorporating existing classes, and expanding the program to offer new categories such as seafood and convenience foods.

To all the exhibitors, we thank you for your consistent dedication to quality and excellence and for continuing to produce premium food of the highest standard, as we have seen in this year's awards.

The 2016 AFA judging panel boasted a line-up of Australia's most-respected industry experts, including Ian Curley of The European, John Lethlean, The Australian, Scott Pickett of Estelle, Phillipa Grogan, Alice Zaslavsky, Luke Mangan and Miranda Sharp from the Melbourne Farmers Market, who came together to judge the highest title of Champion Australian Product. We appreciate and value the dedication, enthusiasm and professionalism of all the judges in assessing the entries to such a high standard.

The awards would not be possible without the support of our valued sponsors or many stewards and volunteers and we sincerely appreciate their time and generosity in the delivery of the AFA.

RASV will continue to assess and evolve the categories in the AFA to reflect industry trends, production, techniques and consumer interest and we look forward to the ongoing development of the AFA into the future.
