CEO MESSAGE

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is delighted to present the 2016 Australian Distilled Spirits Awards (ADSA).

Celebrating the long tradition of distilling in Australia, as well as the new generation of emerging producers, the ADSA attracted 154 entries from 42 distillers in 2016.

RASV is committed to creating opportunities of value for producers with the ADSA providing entrants with credible benchmarking of products, invaluable feedback from the judging panel and market differentiation with the seal of quality an award represents.

To all exhibitors, we thank you for your consistent dedication to quality and excellence and for producing world-class spirits and liqueurs, as we have seen in this year's awards.

A leading line up of industry experts assessed this year's entries, whose knowledge and expertise have been invaluable to the awards. We appreciate and value the dedication, enthusiasm and professionalism of all the judges in assessing the entries to such a high standard.

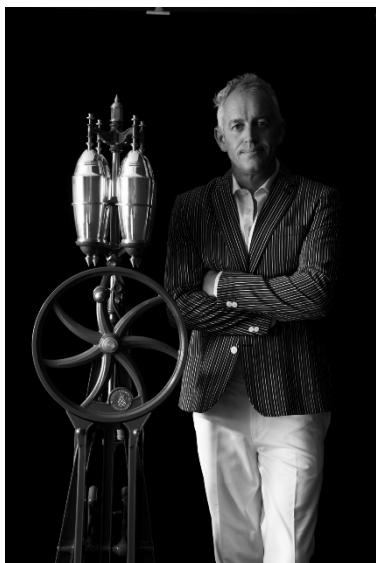

The awards would not be possible without the support of the valued sponsors or many stewards and volunteers and we sincerely appreciate their time and generosity in the delivery of the ADSA.

We look forward to another wonderful year of exceptional production ahead.

HEAD JUDGE'S REPORT

The 2016 Australian Distilled Spirits Awards marked another outstanding year for the Awards, with the overall sentiment among the judging panel being that there had been a notable shift towards world-class production across all categories and classes.

The quality of the Australian spirits and liqueurs exhibited in the Awards was astonishing. It was no surprise to the judges that the whisky category in particular displayed some incredible ingenuity, with some new cutting-edge finishing styles integrated with top-notch distilling. It was the Aussie gins, however, that displayed the largest growth with 44 entries including some Old Toms and London Dry styles vying for the coveted Champion Trophy.

The panel of leading industry experts assigned the task of assessing each entry boasted the best palate in the country. A quality mix of evolved bar operators and industry leaders, including Vernon Chalker, Sebastian Raeburn, Mick Formosa and Adam Jenkins who tasted gin and vodka, whilst Craig Daniels, Julian White, Geoff Fewell and Australian Bartender of the Year 2015 Lee Potter Cavanagh worked their way through whiskies. Looking through the liqueurs were vermouth luminary Shaun Byrne, Australian Bartender Magazine Editor Sam Bygrave, the much-loved Seb 'Cozzi' Costello and Wine Whitch Jenny Pollack.

Myself, and the entire judging panel, look forward to watching the Australian spirits industry continue to grow, and to seeing even more innovation and excellence from Australia's best distillers.
