PAUL GUERRA RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is delighted to present the results for the 2018 Australian Food Awards (AFA).

Australia's leading national food awards program attracted 1296 entries from more than 360 exhibitors this year and the RASV greatly appreciate and value all producers who chose to enter.

With all six states and one territory being represented in the Best in Class awards it shows the excellence of entries from across the country and the showcasing of the awards as a national competition.

The 2018 AFA judging panel boasted a line-up of Australia's most-respected industry experts and we appreciate and value the dedication, enthusiasm and professionalism in assessing the entries to such a high standard.

The awards would not be possible without the support of the valued sponsors The Victorian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and The Victorian Tourism Industry Council.

To the many judges, stewards and volunteers who have been involved, we sincerely appreciate your time and generosity in the delivery of the AFA.

The RASV is committed to continuously enhancing the AFA and in particular creating further value for exhibitors, and this year's competition is further evidence of that. We have continued to benchmark products with the highest integrity and we have evolved the categories to reflect industry trends, production techniques and consumer interest.

Finally, congratulations to all 2018 AFA winners. All finalists should be proud of the national seal of distinction that a medal represents. We trust that you receive great benefit and value from winning and we encourage you to proudly promote your product as an AFA winner. You can be sure we will be doing just that on your behalf too!

Paul Guerra
Chief Executive Officer
The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria
