Congratulations to all of our 2018 Royal Melbourne Wine Awards winners! This is a wonderful way for us to recognise you and your wineries.

Thank you for your continued dedication as without you and your entries, we wouldn't be able to run these awards.

Your commitment to the Royal Melbourne Wine Awards means we have a fantastic benchmarking competition, uniquely suited to you, enabling you to truly see where you stand in the industry, compare your wines and skills with your peers, and receive valuable feedback from our experienced judges.

There is much history attached to these awards, and with that history comes much prestige. Our medals and trophies are recognised both nationally and internationally, giving consumers the knowledge that they are purchasing the best of the best Australian wines.

Each year, we are honoured to have an experienced panel of judges with expert knowledge for the awards and this year, our judges are led by Matt Harrop. The 2018 awards was Matt's first year as Chair of Judges and his many years of experience as a winemaker in Australia and internationally, and as a wine judge and committee member, were welcomed and well-matched to this honoured and respected role.

I would like to take a moment thank the Royal Melbourne Wine Awards Committee, led by Committee Chair Angie Bradbury, for their time and support, making sure this year's awards ran smoothly.

I would also like to mention our sponsors, Portavin Integrated Wine Services, Plumm, Kubota Australia, Labelhouse, and Seabrook Wines and our ticketing partner Eventbrite, without whom we would not be able to run such successful awards each year.

What better way to celebrate wine than to have a dedicated awards celebration! We at the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria are honoured to continue this 134-year-old tradition and we look forward to bringing these awards to you each year.

Chair of Judges' Report

MR MATT HARROP
RMWA CHAIR OF JUDGES

Another Royal Melbourne Wine Awards has been completed. Over four days, 35 judges and 14 associates tasted in excess of 3200 wines. As Chair of Judges, I was in the privileged position of overseeing a wonderful week of tasting and present to you, the exhibitors, the results.

The RMWA has grown over the years to be the largest wine show in Australia. The wine show committee, headed by Angie Bradbury, has worked closely with the RASV to ensure every aspect of the show is carried out in the most professional manner possible. As custodians of our industries most coveted trophies, it is essential the RMWA is administered and operated at the highest level of excellence.

The team here at the RASV have worked tirelessly to ensure the judging process was as smooth as possible. I acknowledge and thank the stewards, led by Su Pettitt and her assistants JP Last and Garry Shotter and the back of house team led by Ania Ligas and her assistant Bryan Jones. A huge thank you to the RASV team who made the show such a success; Michael Katoa, Kirsten Stubbings, Victoria Robinson and the IT crew of Glenn Goodwin and Andrew Toms.

To all exhibitors, thank you for entering. Congratulations on your trophy and medal wins, the calibre of competition was incredibly high. As usual, compelling wines were found in all classes, with Chardonnay, Shiraz, Cabernet and Riesling all world class. The other red and white classes continue to grow, no doubt these classes will gain importance in years to come.

In my first year of Chair, I am delighted with the results and look forward to seeing your continued support of the RMWA.

Mr Matt Harrop

Like many in the wine trade, Peter also has a passion for fine cuisine and subsequently trained as a chef. Peter now has over 25 years experience in the wine and hospitality industry, including local and international wine show judging, independent wine retailing, imported wine wholesaling, restaurant wine list design and training, as well as commercial procurement experience with both hotel groups and airlines.

TOBY BARLOW

The hallmark of Toby's winemaking is his considered and thoughtful approach, coupled with a genuine passion for innovation. Toby brings a fresh, inquisitive approach (that's what a double degree in Chemistry and Philosophy will do to you) and a diverse range of winemaking experience both from a regional and varietal perspective, having worked in wineries in Central Victoria, Australia; New Zealand; Oregon in North America; and the Rhone Valley in France. After completing a vintage Toby was (to his own pleasant surprise) accepted into the Post-Graduate Oenology course at Adelaide University. Toby's general joie de vivre stimulates his continual exploration of all worldly things, naturally including winemaking within the unique tapestry of the Barossa. His motto is 'Happiness is the journey, not the destination'. When not talking all things wine, he can be found discussing philosophical theories, current affairs or kicking the soccer ball around the St Hallett lawns.

TONY HARPER

JUDGE

After a couple of decades bouncing between restaurants, retail and wine bars, Tony has settled on the better hours and limited stress of retail, working with his wife, Tanya, at their Brisbane-based business, Craft Wine Store. He judged his first wine show as an Associate in Adelaide in 1993 after tying with Zar Brookes for pole position at the inaugural Advanced Wine Assessment Seminar: it has been a long and fulfilling journey ever since.

TOLPUDDLE VINEYARD, 2017 CHARDONNAY, TOLPUDDLE VINEYARD, TASMANIA

Tolpuddle Vineyard was established in 1988 and it took its name from the Tolpuddle Martyrs: English convicts transported to Tasmania for forming an agricultural union.

The vineyard is planted with mature Chardonnay and Pinot Noir vines, facing north-east, and sloping gently up from Back Tea Tree Road. The soil is light silica over sandstone and of moderate vigour, ensuring well-balanced vines producing grapes of great flavour and intensity.
