Message from the CEO

PAUL GUERRA
RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is proud to present the results of the 2019 Australian Distilled Spirits Awards (ADSA).

The 2019 ADSA, continued the trend of consistent growth with a record 337 entries from 98 exhibitors, a 14% increase on the number of entries from last year. Our most supported category was Gin with 168 entries, reflective of the growth of gin distillers in Australia.

The ADSA is Australia's largest distilled spirits competition. The awards recognise excellence in Australian Distilled Spirits and Liqueurs, provide distillers with an essential benchmarking opportunity and the chance to receive feedback and recognition that can take your business to the next level.

We thank the Australian Distillers Association for their ongoing partnership of the awards. We encourage all distillers that are yet to become a member to do so.

To all exhibitors, we thank you for your support of the ADSA and for a showcase of quality product that complements the strength of the Australian distilled spirits industry.

The entries were assessed by the largest line up of judges we have ever assembled. To undertake this critical task, we welcomed 27 judges led by Head Judge Sam Bygrave, to Melbourne Showgrounds. We thank the judges for their dedication, professionalism and enthusiasm in assessing the entries to a high standard.

The awards would not be possible without the support of the valued sponsors and the stewards that work behind the scenes to allow the competition to take place. We sincerely appreciate their time and generosity in the delivery of the ADSA.

We look forward to seeing continued growth and innovation in the Australian distilling industry and the ADSA.

Message from the Head Judge

SAM BYGRAVE
AUSTRALIAN DISTILLED SPIRIT AWARDS
HEAD JUDGE

The Australian spirits industry has never been better. Putting aside for one moment the outstanding entries into this year's Australian Distilled Spirits Awards, one just needs to look at the stock of Australia's best bars and on the shelves of their bottle shops to see the great growth of Australian spirits.

I have been up close and personal with the entries into the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards for five years now and it's clear that the standard is higher each year.

With the largest number of exhibits to date, our panels had their work cut out for them. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the panel chairs, Sebastian Costello, Sebastian Reaburn, Lee Potter Cavanagh, Julian White, and Fred Siggins, for their hard work in keeping things on track.

I'd also like to thank the judges and associates involved this year for donating their time to contribute to the ADSA. Their number has expanded again this year, which means the pool of judges in this field is growing ever deeper. I think the judging class of 2019 were perhaps the best that I have had the chance to work with.

As this is my final year in the role, I'd like to thank everyone at RASV for their work in orchestrating the ADSA.

The ADSA plays a vital role in promoting the best of the Australian distilled spirits industry. The Awards have contributed to the high standard of spirits made in this country today.

Importantly, I'd like to thank the stewards who volunteer their time to keep the glasses of our judges topped up and without whom the whole judging process wouldn't be possible.

Lastly, thank you to Michael Katoa and Kirsten Stubbings for putting on the best edition yet of the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards. It's been a privilege to be involved.

Sam Bygrave
ADSA Head Judge
